

Privacy VS Security Mock PSA

Logline- We are getting people to believe that they don't need privacy as long as they have security and the government is protecting them. We are making fun of how people will just believe anything the government says because they're in power. Also we show that the people are almost brainwashed by what the government says.

Shot 1- Open on close-up shot of the government official talking.

Shot 2- Then cut to reverse zoom (mid-shot) to of official standing behind a desk. He is saying "Hello citizens, yes we can monitor you. Yes we can track you through your devices. This is for your own good. We are protecting you from the people who are a danger to our society."

Shot 3- Jump cut to people watching (high angle-shot). They are tentatively watching as if brain washed.

Shot 4- Jump cut (low angle shot) to official still saying speech.

Shot 5- People are shouting and chanting "Protect Us!" "Protect Us!" ( Pan over the shoulder of the official)

Shot 6- (Wide shot) Of one person standing up and yelling "Our privacy doesn't matter as long as we're safe!"

Shot 7- (Extreme close up) Of official smiling wickedly. As people chant.

Shot 8- (extreme wide shot) People gather up in a straight line and start walking out.

Shot 9- (Close up) Jump cut back to the officials face(expression).

Shot 10- Fade to black screen and show the quote “I can tell you that these tools will not be used against America” — Michael Hayden. Fade out to shot 11

Shot 11- Show the primal prop symbol and names underneath.

PERFECT. Don't change a thing. This a bombtrack!
